Thanksgiving.

Yreka Union.

In looking back over the past year we find much for which to be thankful. Besides a fryingpan and a celluloid hairbrush, our creditors neglected to take our life. We still have the chills every other day, which leaves 182 days in a year in which to parade our emaciated form around the rialto, in search of items, cast-off clothing, delinquent subscribers, lunch-boxes and other delicacies, for which our refined taste craves. We feel thankful for all these blessings—except the chills. We are thankful for the privilege of breathing the same air that keeps alive our sleek and well-fed delinquent subscribers. We feel thankful that two or three citizens have kindly permitted us to remain in Yreka. We would rather live in Yreka than in Chicago, a statement which will at once dispel the impression that we are proud and stuck up. We are exceedingly thankful to know that we are about in the dark of the moon, for our wood is getting low. During the past year death has entered our humble door and yanked into the foggy beyondness our oldest girl, but we are thankful that we have still left us one of the best hunting dogs (full blood English setter, three years old, dark brown with white spots; dam, "Fannie Yorkshire," "pawed" by Queensbury's "Yap") that ever made a point. We are also thankful that our Summer pantaloons have extended so far into the Winter, and with the addition of another buckskin patch we hope to be able to continue these pantaloons with them until the middle of next year. As for our money, we will bob into the butcher's shop and negotiate for a Bologna, and we will again be thankful if we can purchase it on six months' time.

Grand Gift Enterprise.

At H. Schmieding's jewelry store, something worth while to get away with. Twelve elegant presents now on exhibition in the show window of H. Schmieding's jewelry store, will be given away on the following conditions: Every person purchasing goods at the above named jewelry store will receive one ticket for every three dollars' worth of purchase, which entitles the holder to a chance in any of the prizes. All the presents will be given away to the lucky holders of winning tickets on December 31st, 1885.

Heep La!

Mr. A. E. Hartman is last but not least. Yesterday evening he received at his jewelry store the largest and finest stock of silverware, consisting of knives, forks, spoons, pitchers, card receivers, and in fact just the neatest and best Christmas presents in the city. Give him a call. Watch repairing a specialty.

Notice.

To the taxpayers of Cochise County, Arizona Territory: The fighting Thirteenth having passed the law at their session, it is imperative that the Territorial and county taxes for the current year of 1885, must be paid in the office of the County Treasurer and Tax Collector, as the Treasurer can not visit places and collect taxes.

Glorious News.

The arrival of two large freight teams this morning in front of Summerfield Bros' store, caused our reporter to pause while going the rounds of the city for news. After waiting a few minutes he observed several large packing cases being unloaded. This excited his curiosity, and he repaired to the interior of the store where he found them being unpacked, and noticed that they were filled with boys and men's clothing, which are especially suited for the holidays.

We also observed several cases which contained a full line of holiday presents such as silk handkerchiefs, plain handkerchiefs, embroidered handkerchiefs, initial handkerchiefs, and in fact almost everything that is suitable for holiday presents. Mr. Summerfield stated to us that he had employed a force of six extra clerks, so that everybody could be waited upon at once and not be kept waiting. We would advise all parties desiring holiday goods, or who would like to make their lady or gentleman friend a suitable present, to visit the store of Summerfield Bros', and they will find what they want.
